Winner—Br. c. 3, by Inverness—LaTrappe.
Start straggling. Won easily; second and third driving. Trappean was out to the last ounce. Off badly, Gallant was pocketed on first turn, had to run around the field and showed enough speed to have won with a fair break. Sir Richard is a counterfit. Duke Stevens had speed for a short distance and then stopped to nothing. McFarlane ran a good race. Last Chance had no speed.

IDEAL PARK FORM BOOKS.

There are for sale at this office six books of the entire Ideal Park meeting, in flexible leather covers, with a full index. The books cost $5 each. They are such as are supplied to bookmakers.

IDEAL PARK'S CLOSING DAY.

The racing season of Ideal Park for 1896 closed yesterday, and it was a grand winding up, too, for the public, all five of the events going to heavily played favorites. It was quite cold and the track was frozen stiff and hard. The racing was more than ordinary tame, all of the winners having something to spare.

A selling race at one mile was the afternoon's feature and May Thompson won quite easily from Countess Irma. Weenatchie was named as a starter but she went lame in warming up. Her owner's request to scratch her was refused. When the horses were on their way to the post it was plain to everyone that Weenatchie was lame and unfit to start. After a breakaway Judge Clark decided the filly was in no shape to race and all bets were declared off and Weenatchie let out.

The Lakeland stable was quite busy winning two purses with Hester and May Thompson and running second with Maid of Honor. Hester was a 6 to 5 chance in the first event, and getting away in the first flight simply galloped all the way winning pulled up.

Whitcomb was the usual "good thing." He opened at 2 to 1 but was backed almost off the boards, and won in a common canter. The regular fourth race was declared off and a half mile dash substituted. Sugar, heavily played and well ridden by the veteran Stoval, won with a bit to spare from Maid of Honor.

W. E. & F. S. Everhart's fast colt Holy Terror ran a sensational race in the closing event. He was off last and won handily in the fast time of 49 1/4 seconds.

THURSDAY'S KENTUCKY SALE.

The three catalogues of the Kentucky combination sale, at Lexington next Thursday, have all been issued and pretty generally distributed, so that all, or nearly all, interested are by this time familiar with the superb aggregation which is to pass under Mr. Easton's hammer. There are one hundred and fifty-two animals catalogued, including the imported stallions Candelmas, Order and Cavalier. Another stallion not in the catalogues, but which will be offered at the sale, is that great young son of imported The Ill-Used, the almost phenomenal campaigner Badge, winner of no fewer than fifty-four races, nearly all in first-class company. Badge is a certain foal getter, and his offspring thus far are almost invariably colts.

As is well known, the first catalogue of this important sale is devoted to the Elmendorf Stud, the second to the Beaumont Stud and the third to the miscellaneous consignments made by the Ashland Park Stud (Captain B. J. Treacy), Castleton Stud (Messrs. J. R. & F. P. Keene), Barry and Ferguson Estates, Hon. J. H. Mulligan (his entire stud), Mr. Arthur M. Hunter (also his entire stud), Mr. John E. Madden, Mr. J. F. Herndon, Mr. J. H. Johnson and others. These include broodmares of the most fashionable breeding, yearlings and weanlings.
